

CONTENTS

Preface	vii
List of Contributors	ix
Part One: Overview
1. Preventing Conflict in the South China Sea Rodolfo C. Severino	3
2. ASEAN and the South China Sea Dispute Robert C. Beckman	15
3. Why is There a Relative Peace in the South China Sea? Mikael Weissmann	36
Part Two: ASEAN's View on the South China Sea
4. ASEAN Claimants' Position in the South China Sea Hasjim Djalal	67
5. An ASEAN Perspective on the South China Sea: China-ASEAN Collision or China-U.S. Hegemonic Competition? Aileen S.P. Baviera	88
Part Three: China's Position
6. China's Stance on Some Major Issues of the South China Sea Wang Hanling	115
7. The Changing Contexts of China's Policy on the South China Sea Dispute Li Mingjiang	129

Part Four: ASEAN Claimants' and Taiwan's Positions

8. Settlement of the South China Sea Dispute:
A Vietnamese View 153
Nguyen Thi Lan Anh
9. The Philippines and the South China Sea 166
Rodolfo C. Severino
10. Malaysia's Maritime Claims in the South China Sea:
Security and Military Dimensions 208
Dzirhan Mahadzir
11. Taiwan's South China Sea Policy Revival 223
Fu-Kuo Liu

Part Five: The Interests of Others

12. The U.S. Position in the South China Sea 247
Barry Wain

Part Six: Conclusion

13. Conclusion 265
Pavin Chachavalpongpun

- Index* 275